Arrest of Suspected Murderer. the negro who shot and killed Charles T. Smith, son or Lieutenant Smith, on the night of the 20th of last October

Chief Goods recently received a letter from J B. Hutchinson, Chief of Police to Harrisburg, enclosing photographs of the prisoner, and arking the former if the prisoner, and arking the former if the pictures were those of the negro wanted in this city. They were shown to several persons who had seen Johnson in Alex endris last fall, and they all the columns of houses have been sent sailing through the columns. The strending physicians have arranged and are delivering a new and fuller course of lectures to the pupil nurses. This new course has been very satisfactory, taking in as it does a wider and from trees and some shingles from roots of houses have been sent sailing through the columns. with one accord recognized the criminal.

Later Chief Goods accompanied by Officer B-ach proceeded to the city Jail In Pon-ylvania and had since he field from Al xandria married another woman. The chief showed the Johnson woman the picture of a strange negro and asked if that was her husband. She said that it was not. He then exhibited Johnson's pictures which she instantly recognized as those of her husband. The pictures were also recognized by Gertrade Robinson as those of Johnson.

Cantel Goods has for some time been in communication with the Chief of Police of Harrisburg concerning Johnson's wheresbouts, and had had sent circular experiments and all proposed as those of the restraint to pay the annual contribution.

The pictures were also recognized by Gertrade Robinson as those of Johnson.

Cantel Goods has for some time been in communication with the Chief of Police of Harrisburg concerning Johnson's pictures were most satisfactory, satisfactory, showing all business affairs in good shape, the financial report being especially gratifying, the dues of the members being promptly paid, donations to various objects sent in due season and all taxes paid. The treasurer was instructed to pay the annual contribution of insane patients have been provided, patients that sometimes become temporal to pay the annual contribution. where Sarah Johnson, Johnson's wife, and Gertrude Robinson are confined lice of Harrisburg concerning Johnson's wheresbouts, and had had sent circulars concerning the man wanted in this city, and upon Colet Gad's description of the fugnive the arrest was made.

Mayor Paff, who has kept in close recording secretary; Mrs J. R. Zimmertouch with all the plans which have been man, corresponding secretary, Miss E. formulated for the capture of the negro, immediately after the receipt of the announcement o' Johnson's capture had an interview with Commonwealth's Attornev Brent and a warrant was prepared in Confederate Veterans' building, last and sent to Harrisburg. An application will be forthwith made to Governor Swanson for a requisition in order that Johnson can be brought to this city and Mayor Paff has deputized Officer Jeffer-son Beach to proceed to Harrisburg at the proper time and conduct the prisoner

The Chief of Police of Harrlaburg last night called up Mayor Paff over the long distance telephone and informed his honor that the man now in jail at that place is undoubtedly the fugitive from Alexandria. The chief stated that he had picked up Johnson on Chief Goods's descriptions. He also informed Mayor Faff that the prisoner had refused to come to Virginia without a requisition, Johnson alleging that he would not have a fair trial. The person depice that he a fair trial. The negro denies that he a fair trial. The negro denies that he shot Smith, and says on the night of the their director Mrs. Oscar Carter, for the shilling he carried a .44 calibre pistol, donation of a number of Froebel Mother killing he carried a .44 calibre pistol, while the weapon used by the man who killed Smith was a .38. He further stated that he discharged his pistol into the ground during the scuffle and that Smith was shot by one of the parties who was pursuing him. Mission at St. Mary's Church.

The questions asked of the priests who are preaching at St Mary's Church are a most in creating feature of the mission. Answers were given last night o questions about the uselessness and vanity of religious ceremonies, about the Wilkes and Fairfax streets, any morning Carlin comes from Alexandria, the most of man, and about the rosary or prayer beads used by Catholics. For want of time two important questions were left over for tonight; one asking why Catholies are forbidden to join the Masons the other why priests are not allow d to marry. The lecture of the evening was a reply to the question, "Ho - can we living so long after Christ know with certainty what He really taught, especially since there are so to Richmond. It is not known who will many contradictions among Christians succeed him in Alexandria. Mr. Conmany contradictions among Christians as to what he meant?" The speaker said that not by private inspiration, nor privace judgment, nor by private interpretation of Scripture can we arrive with certainty at a correct understanding of the religion of Christ. It you ask why aiot, I point to the results of such an attempt. Behold the conflicting sects and c a restictory doctrines taught by them. The same rule holds good today that was the only and all-sufficient rule in Apostolic times: "Hear the church, authorized by Christ to teach His doctrine and gnaranteed by him to teach it correctly till the end of the world."

The lecture tonight will be on the confess on of sins to the prest; Thursday, purgatory or prayers for the dead; Friday, the real presence of Christ in the holy communion; Saurday, the ven-eration due to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints; Sunday, Way I am a
